The Library Club may not seem very active, but last year's members proved to be an invaluable aid to Mrs. Morris and students alike. Not only did they man the desk, but they also helped Mrs. Morris in other duties that most students overlook. They helped keep the magazines up-to-date and orderly and replaced the books in their proper places on the shelves. Without the services that the Library Club provides, our library might not be as orderly and quiet as we like it to be.

Varsity Squad Has Even Season

The Mountaineer spirit and enthusiasm led the C.F.H.S. football team to another fine season. Under the direction of Head Coach Ed Scott, and the training of coaches Dick Krol and Colby Trammell, the Clifton Forge Mountaineers finished the season with 5 wins and 5 losses.

Seniors on the squad last year were Gilbert Davis, Leonard Wallace, Gary Scruggs, Chappy Morris, Dennis Nicely, David Jeffries, Glenn Perry, Mark Nichols, Wendall Rowland, and Greg Megginson. Providing team leadership as Captains were Gilbert Davis, Leonard Wallace, and Gary Scruggs. Gilbert Davis, Tussy Humphries, Leonard Wallace, Mark Nichols, and Greg Megginson made the all district team.

Looking into the future we expect to see many returning players and another fine year!

J.V. Football Team Has Good Defense

Through the sweat and tired bodies of the J.V. Football players, and the encouraging shouts of Coaches Lou Nagy and Donnie Buzzard, the team wound up their season with a 2-8 record. A lack in number of players and little experience contributed greatly as their losses. But the defense was consistent, and team effort never faded. Noted players were Danny Campbell, who did an excellent job as a lineman, and Mason Layne, who proved to be a good leader. Fuzzy Gibson had a good year, along with Dow Morris, who served as quarterback.

The varsity team is fortunate to receive these upcoming players, and the scoreboard for J.V. as well as varsity should be worthwhile for next year.

Mounties are successful in two games.

Couples dance "At The End Of The Rainbow."

With a dry atmosphere for the first time in four years, Homecoming festivities got underway with the announcement of the hall contest winners Friday afternoon. The annual parade was sponsored by the G.A. with the Class of '76 walking off with first place.

The climax of the festivities was the announcement of the Queen and her Court at half-time. Romania Wallace was crowned 1973 Homecoming Queen with Melah Lacey as her Maid of Honor, Martha Peters as the Sophomore Attendant, Trudie Lacey as the Freshman Attendant, and Mary K. Taylor from the Eighth grade.

The game offered more excitement as the Mounties carried off a victory over the James River Knights 6-0.

The Sophomore Class produced a perfect ending to the day's events with their creation of "At The End Of The Rainbow." The beat was kept by Witches Brew as Romania Wallace reigned as queen over the dance.

Mounties Break Even On Regular Season Record

SENIORS: Steve Gibson, Grady Haynes, Rodney Unroe, Gilbert Davis, Leonard Wallace.

Gilbert stretches for the ball.

The 1973-74 Varsity Basketball team ended their season with an 8-8 record. Coach Colby Trammell was especially pleased with a big win over Glenvar after the two teams battled in a triple overtime. He cited teamwork as the factor the cagers worked hard on all year to improve.

The annual Christmas Tournament hosted by Allegheny High School brought profitable results for the Mountaineers. After a win over the Colts, the boys went on to defeat the Covington Cougars and take the tournament trophy.

Unfortunately, the Mounties didn't do as well at the District Tournaments. The team travelled to the Civic Center. Due to unusual circumstances, Clifton Forge was given two chances in the finals. Both times they were defeated. Lord Botetourt bounced back to defeat the Mounties for the last time of the season.

A 5-11 win-loss record frustrated the hearts of many in the past J.V. Basketball season. The boys fought throughout the season with hope, determination and faith.

Coach Harmon indicated that poor team work and defensive work were the main factors that caused the Mounties to have an upset in many of their games. The coach also added that despite the lost games, he felt that all of the boys were very valuable. Along with Coach Harmon, C.F.H.S. foresees a better record for the upcoming year.

Stepping off the courts with scores often in the forties, the eighth grade basketball team, led by Coach J. C. Watson, played fairly good games. Scoring a 6-4 record, the team was noted for giving their spectators plenty of excitement. Playing other teams with larger players, the Mountaineers found that their height was their main disadvantage. We are sure a fine program will be in store for next year's eighth graders.

Mountie Matmen Do Well In Regionals

Despite the fact that the "73-74" wrestling team had to forfeit three weight classes in each match, setting them back eighteen points, and that no team matches were won, the program gained strength. Under the coaching of Ed Scott, the Wrestling team did well in the regional tournament, with many winning individual matches. Sammy Nicastro placed second in the district, and fourth in the region, with a record of 14-6. Keith Simmons' record was 9-9-1, while Kevin Davis, who served as an excellent captain, finished his season with a record of 6-7.

Coach Scott is proud of his wrestlers, and he hopes to see an even better fight on the mats in the upcoming seasons.

This year's season began with wins and ended with wins. By combining spirit, determination, and skill, the girl's basketball team had a perfect season as the undefeated thinclads of C.F.-H.S. and then going on as state champions. Leading them through victory after victory was Coach Lookabill, whose last coaching season at Clifton Forge was made a very memorable one.

OUTDOOR TRACK — The thinclads really put on a super performance as they won the first track meet for Clifton Forge in eight years. They ran, threw, and jumped their way to the best outdoor track season for years. Finishing a close third in the district, the team proved that it could really perform.

INDOOR TRACK — Under Donnie Buzzard and Dick Krol, the indoor track team turned out a fine effort, finishing a close second to Glenvar in the District meet. There were several outstanding competitors, but everybody contributed to a great overall team effort.

Ready . . . Set . . . The girls get ready to dash off towards the finish line.

Once again, through early practices and hard work, the Girl's Track team remained undefeated. Under the coaching of Mrs. Lookabill, the season started off victoriously with a win against Buffalo Gap. From then on, they breezed their way through the rest of the meets.

They entered the first district meet ever held in the top position. Several first places were won, and adding the other scores, summed them up as champions once again.

This year, several of the girls went to districts. Trudi Lacey competed in hurdles, high jump along with Carol Van Lear, the 440 with Ellen Tucker, and the 440 relay with Anne Gaither, Sally Tucker, and Susie Crawford who also participated in the 100 yard race. Trudi Lacey also went to the state meet in the hurdles.

Practice pays off as Trudi, Carol, and Joanne take the top 3 places.

Golf Team Finishes Third In Region

Miss Watts, Coach, Jimmy Leech, Willis Nichols, Roddy MacKay, Mark Nichols, Keith Simmons.

The C.F.H.S. golf team finished off the year with an outstanding record of nine wins and three losses. They came in second in the Blue Ridge District Tournament, going on to win third place in the regionals with a score of 326. Jimmy Leech finished his season with an average of 76.4 with Keith Simmons close behind with an average of 86.8

Tennis Anyone?

Tennis anyone? If you happened to be a member of the C.F.H.S. tennis team or just a bystander, this was a familiar saying every afternoon and some early mornings at Linden Park. Coaches Dick Layman and Rob Goralawitz teamed their knowledge for this sport now in its second year at C.F.H.S.

There is no doubt to the identity of the most outstanding player. Eddie Pullen joined together practice, talent and experience to win all of his district singles matches which led to the Blue Ridge District singles championship. Pullen then captured the Group Two, Region Three singles championship thus advancing to state. Under sweltering heat he placed a respectable fourth in the AA State Tennis Tournament. These tremendous accomplishments are something Pullen and C.F.H.S. can be proud of.

Although the tennis team as a whole did not win any matches and the loss of Pullen will be greatly felt there is always new talent for the morrow.

Help Make Games Fun

The summer's long, hard practice paid off at last when the football cheerleaders took the second place trophy at Longwood College. During the school year, they made posters, and cheered at football and basketball games. They kept school spirit high by sponsoring hall decorations, spirit chains, and pep rallies.

The Squad B cheerleaders helped the Squad A cheerleaders. They cheered at girl's basketball games and wrestling matches. This was a new project this year and it paid off well.

The J.V. squad aided in boosting the spirit of the fans by cheering at J.V. football and basketball games. They also cheered in one of the pep rallies.

S.G.A. Sponsors New Ideas

This year the S.G.A. introduced many new ideas while keeping old traditions. For the first time, C.F.H.S. participated in the Open Door Student Exchange Program. Flavio Salek came to us from Brazil and was introduced to the American way of life. Although shy at first, Flavio soon became familiar with the students and left with memories to remember.

The long awaited dream of a juke box finally materialized. After several negotiations over volume, placement and all other trivias, our new addition came to rest in the cafeteria where it was enjoyed by all.

The S.G.A. sponsored its first W. C. Fields Film Festival. Although financially a loss, those who attended found it enjoyable and a "unique" experience.

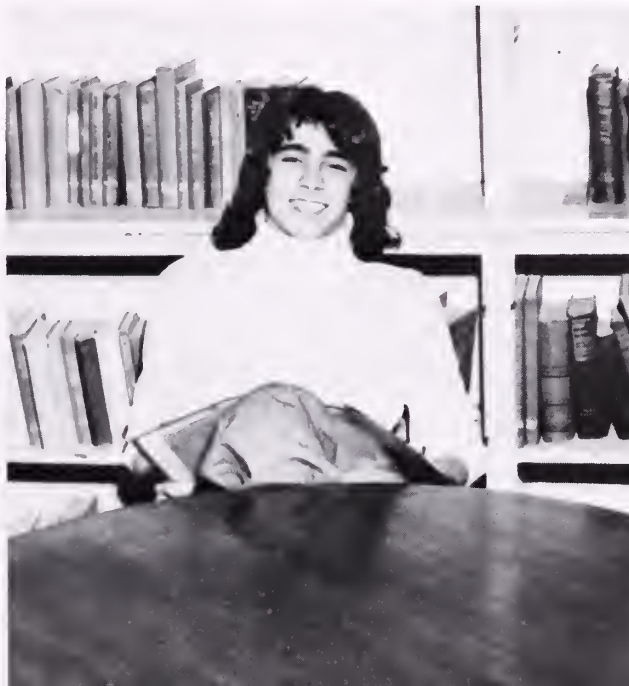

As is the tradition, the Student Government was in charge of the Homecoming Parade and halftime show. Miss Romania Wallace, Homecoming Queen, was presented a pennant and a dozen red roses, both gifts from the S.G.A.

As a service to the students the S.G.A. sold school supplies to students. With the added income, we were able to buy a bike rack for students who need a place to park their bikes.

Hi-Y Keeps School Clean

Under the leadership of Mr. Ed Van Lear and Glenn Perry, president, the Hi-Y, although it did not get the ace award, made some of the most important contributions of its history.

Not only did the members help with "Meals on Wheels", sponsor the Brian Piccolo Cancer Walk, and sell candy, but they also attended the Model General Assembly in Richmond. There, David Jeffries served as Speaker of the House.

Probably the most helpful thing the club did to help out the school was to be temporary janitors in a time when they were most needed to help keep our school clean and neat.

Kevin, Eddie, Glenn, and David hold check.

Community Service Is Goal Of Tri-Hi-Y

This year the Tri-Hi-Y devoted much of its time to community service projects. As a first money raising project, they sold pumpkins at the Fall Foliage Festival.

For one week the girls took part in Meals on Wheels, a project of bringing lunches to the elderly or disabled who cannot get their lunches on their own.

As a gift for Christmas, the Tri-Hi-Y sponsored a clothing drive for the Lynchburg Training School.

The club sponsored two delegates to the Model General Assembly in Richmond. There they learned the technical aspects of the law-making body of our government. In order to sponsor the delegates, the club decided to donate two dollars apiece which they had earned by doing a certain chore of their choice.

The club carried out their purpose of creating and maintaining good will throughout the school and community.

The three Hi-Y clubs often work together to sponsor projects that will be beneficial to others.

Throughout the year, the Jr.-Tri-Hi-Y worked not only in the school but also the community.

There were guest speakers present at some of the meetings to give speeches and examples of their interests.

A food basket for a needy family and readings for the school were the Thanksgiving projects.

Toys and jewelry were collected at Christmas for the Lynchburg Training Center.

Clifton Forge was also represented at the District Conference and Massanetta Conference which were held during the year.

For Valentine's Day, everyone picked a heart sister and presented her with a gift.

The year was an extremely eventful one for the Jr.-Tri-Hi-Y.

JCL Is Club For Latin Students

Sitting: Sally Wolfe, Martha Manner, Tracey Smith, Teresa Knick. Standing: Mrs. Griggs, Sponsor, Mauri King, Patty Stull, Becky Edmunds, Shelia Fischer, Christy Putnam, Greg Via, Debbie Wilcher.

The Junior Classical League has been playing an important part in maintaining an appreciation of the ancient Greek and Roman civilizations. The club entered a "chariot" in the Homecoming parade with Tracey Smith acting as the conquering general and Debbie Wilcher as the Bargarian in chains. In December, seven J.C.L. members attended the State J.C.L. convention at the Hotel Roanoke. In August Sally Wolfe and Christy Putnam acted as representatives of C.F.H.S. at the National J.C.L. convention in Durham, New Hampshire. They also sponsored the concessions at the girl's basketball games. The last meeting of the year was a Latin Banquet held at the Holiday Inn.

The Alleghanian staff is responsible for preserving the school year through pictures and prose. Last year, the staff held workshops in order to piece the book together. This took long hours of toil and effort. Not only did they work after school, but they worked also at night and during their summer vacation. Mrs. Morris, the sponsor, helped the members of the staff selling drinks and candy at the basketball concessions. In later years, we will be grateful to the staff and Mrs. Morris for helping us remember the happy days of our high school years.

Besides shining in just sports, C.F.H.S. has also turned out talented individuals in other areas. Sponsored by Mrs. Agnes Snead, a small group of students competed with other regional high schools at Alleghany High School. Good results were accomplished. Ruth Bridgers won first place in the girl's Extemporaneous Speaking, while Thomas Drumheller finished second in boy's Prose Reading. Third place in girl's Prose Reading was awarded to Lisa Finestone. Eddie Pullen finished third in boy's Extemporaneous Speaking.

Ruth Bridgers and Thomas Drumheller went on to represent our school at the Regional Forensics meet, hosted by Brookville High School, Lynchburg. They did not place first, but they still represented our school well. C.F.H.S. can be proud of their intellectuals.

FHA Holds Tea For Mothers

Seated: Dee Cooper; Cheryl Taylor; June Easter; Anita Campbell; Lisa Easter; Mrs. Anderson, sponsor. Standing: Sederia Brown; Trina Clapsaddle; Mary Bess Linkenhoker; Susan Hayslett; Joyce Merchant; Melanie White; Kim Hamilton; Cindy Spangler; Mary K. Unroe; and Tammy Hennessee.

Our Future Homemakers of America have really been busy. They sold candles, and had a social with a demonstration for the members and their mothers. They sent a delegate and their sponsor, Mrs. Anderson, to the state FHA meeting in Richmond, and held an assembly at Easter. At Christmas they fixed a basket for a needy family. Still another project was celebrating FHA week in which they attended a church of their choice, cooked a meal at home, and presented apples to Mr. Totten, the faculty, and other members of the staff.

Key Club Has Busy First Year

"Help yourself and your community" was the adopted motto of the newly formed Key Club. Following this motto true to heart the club aided in many civic projects. They volunteered their time and muscle to the Bloodmobile, Fall Festival and a city wide paper drive.

The Clifton Forge Kiwanis under the leadership of Jim Colley was instrumental in organizing the Key Club. Under the direction of Richard Krol the club throughout the year provided more community awareness.

Travelling to the state convention at Richmond in April provided several of the club members an opportunity to share their varied ideas with Key Club members from around the state.

The Beta Club was very busy last year with bake sales and community projects. One of the highlights of the school year was when the club sponsored a 1950's sock hop. Our school was well represented on Classroom Kwiz by Cheryl Taylor, Dee Cooper, and Donna Kimberlin.

The state convention was held in Roanoke, and attending from our club were Mrs. Van Lear, sponsor, Dee Cooper, Kim Hamilton, and Donna Kimberlin.

Donna waits for her number to come up as she represents our school on Classroom Kwiz.

The newly organized Junior Beta Club responded well to its first year. Under the guidance of Mrs. Van Lear, the Club welcomed members with an eighty-five average who come from grades eight through ten.

In its first year, the club was very active. Meeting twice a month, the club discussed new ideas and ways to participate in various events. The club drafted a constitution which was voted on and passed.

At Christmas, the Jr. Beta Club gave its services to collect clothing and toys for the Goodwill Industry.

In the upcoming year, a tapping service will be conducted to bring new members into the club. The Jr. Beta Club has set its path into next year and plans to be active once again.

The Varsity Club is an honorary club honoring those members of the school who have earned an Athletic Letter. These letters are awarded to those athletes who have served exceptionally well in their particular sport. An assembly is held at the end of the school year to present the awards.

The club is presently inactive, but it is an honor to be a member for both girls and boys alike.

Right: Cheerleaders can be a member of this club also.

Over the Easter vacation, six students and Miss Fraley left for a ten-day tour of Spain. They visited Madrid and other important areas of Spain. They also visited the Monument to Don Quixote, the fearless crusader of purity in the fiction world.

At the same time, Mr. Layman chaperoned six students around France. They toured in Paris and visited the Louvre, a famous museum there.

The trips were very educational and extremely interesting. This adventure will not be forgotten, but will always be remembered as a rewarding experience for the members of this group.

Drama Club Has One-Act Play

Seated: Ruth Bridgers, secretary; Connie Calhoun, president; Lisa Finestone, vice-president; Debbie Dobbs, treasurer; Mrs. Adlis, sponsor. Standing: Kevin Nicely, Lana Stinespring, Thomas Drumheller, Mike Wright, Mark Nichols, Ellen Taylor, David Albright, June Easter, Blair Grimm, Kate McMullan, Marcie Farrar, Teresa Knick, Stephen Saum, Vicki Tuke, and Kathy Valenzuela.

In the past year, the 1973-74 Drama Club worked very hard toward improving their skills. Television offerings were watched and studied for methods of acting, character interpretation, costuming, contrasts of voice, movements, and tempo. Later in the year, DSLCC offered new insights into lighting, make-up, and presentation.

"The Old Actor", a one-act play, was presented at Dabney S. Lancaster Community College as part of a one-act play collection. Members who portrayed characters in this play were Thomas Drumheller, Mike Wright, Stephen Saum, and Vicki Tuke.

Band Has New Director

Teresa Knick, Joann Brown, and Bonnie Burnside twirl to the tunes of the C.F.H.S. band.

With white spats and gloves, green and gold uniforms, instruments gleaming; all of these describe the Clifton Forge High School Band. Under the new guidance of Ronald L. Horton, the band once again supported the football team by playing the familiar school song in the stands, and boosting the support of the students at pep rallies.

Following football season, the band busily worked for the District Band VI Festival. Their long hours of practicing was sustained by their two excellent marks, and their one superior mark.

Presenting its annual Christmas concert, the band played lively tunes as well as solemn numbers. David Albright received the Arion Award the most outstanding leader in music. Other individuals were recognized for their musical talents.

The band finished their year with an outdoor spring concert. Added attractions consisted of Debbie Dobbs, who sang a popular song.

Marigold soaks Daddy's feet.

Comedy was the name of the game in the Senior play "Don't Blow the Whistle". Ali, the new heir to the throne needed some wives. Several touring American girls were in the area, and seemed an ideal solution, but they disappeared! Sir Reginald Roots, the renowned amateur detective, was called in to find them. The action unfolded in the tent of Sir Roots, and made quite a hit with the audience.

Marigold helps up Cravat who has become a little tipsy.

"Don't go anywhere, now."

The American girls talk to Miss Roots and her boyfriend.

Right: Robin skillfully plays the part of Marigold, the young, love sick daughter of Sir Roots.

Faculty Slips By Seniors

Seniors practice before the game.

Mr. Harmon must think he's playing football.

The annual Senior-Faculty basketball game was held in February. For the first time in ages, the faculty squeezed by the seniors by a score of 63-61. Senior cheerleaders were supplied by the senior girls. Mrs. Clift and Mrs. Griggs surprised everyone by showing up as coaches for the senior team.

Miss Watts and Mrs. Garret proved that great numbers are not needed to cheer a team to victory. All in all, everyone had fun and the sportsman-like behavior on both sides was an example of how faculty and students can work together and play together successfully.

Juniors Create Wonderland

Couples start the festivities by having a Grand March through a magic rose arbor.

The Junior-Senior Prom of 1974 was centered around the theme "Goodbye Yellow Brick Road". Couples walked through a dirty city and into a magical world of giant tree trunks, many-colored trees, and a rose arbor in the center of the dance floor. A rainbow with its pot of gold, a picket fence, and a yellow brick road leading to a crimson sunset round out the beauty of the night. Many months before the prom, the Class of 1975 spent long hours exploring new ideas and preparing for this night to remember. Music was furnished by the Dynamic Whirlwinds.

The serving girls, as usual, were chosen from the Sophomore class. They were attired in long, gingham dresses which added to the fairyland atmosphere.

The Junior class was greatly aided in their endeavor by their sponsors, Miss Fraley, Mr. Layman, and Mr. Van Lear.
